Equality Impact Assessment: Review of the General Buller statue

The Equality Act 2010 includes a general duty which requires public authorities, in the exercise of their functions, to have due regard to the need to:

- Eliminate discrimination, harassment and victimisation and any other conduct that is prohibited by or under the Act.
- Advance equality of opportunity between people who share a relevant protected characteristic and people who do not share it.
- Foster good relations between people who share a relevant protected characteristic and those who do not

In order to comply with the general duty authorities must assess the impact on equality of decisions, policies and practices. These duties do not prevent the authority from reducing services where necessary, but they offer a way of developing proposals that consider the impacts on all members of the community.

Authorities which fail to carry out equality impact assessments risk making poor and unfair decisions which may discriminate against particular groups and worsen inequality.

Committee name and date:	Report Title	Decisions being recommended:	People with protected characteristics potentially impacted by the decisions to be made:

Factors to consider in the assessment: For each of the groups below, an assessment has been made on whether the proposed decision will have a positive, negative or neutral impact. This must be noted in the table below alongside brief details of why this conclusion has been reached and notes of any mitigation proposed. Where the impact is negative, a high, medium or low assessment is given. The assessment rates the impact of the policy based on the current situation (i.e. disregarding any actions planned to be carried out in future).

High impact – a significant potential impact, risk of exposure, history of complaints, no mitigating measures in place etc.

Medium impact – some potential impact exists, some mitigating measures are in place, poor evidence

Low impact – almost no relevancy to the process, e.g. an area that is very much legislation led and where the Council has very little discretion

Protected characteristic/ area of interest	Positive or Negative Impact	High, Medium or Low Impact	Reason
Race and ethnicity (including Gypsies and Travellers; migrant workers; asylum seekers).	Positive	High	The conclusions of the report may have a significant potential impact
Disability: as defined by the Equality Act – a person has a disability if they have a physical or mental impairment that has a substantial and long-term adverse impact on their ability to carry out normal day-to-day activities.
Sex/Gender
Gender reassignment Religion and belief (includes no belief, some philosophical beliefs such as Buddhism and sects within religions).

Sexual orientation (including heterosexual, lesbian, gay, bisexual).
Age (children and young people aged 0-24; adults aged 25-50; younger older people aged 51-75/80; older people 81+; frail older people; people living with age related conditions. The age categories are for illustration only as overriding consideration should be given to needs).
Pregnancy and maternity including new and breast feeding mothers
Marriage and civil partnership status
Actions identified that will mitigate any negative impacts and/or promote inclusion <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Inclusive proactive community consultation will promote an inclusive conclusion • Identifying the process and the powers of Scrutiny Board prior to consultation will help mitigate negative impacts and reduce the risk that Scrutiny has the decisive verdict on matters surrounding the statue.
