

EXETER CITY COUNCIL

Statutory Review of Polling Districts and Polling Places

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that Exeter City Council in pursuance of the powers conferred upon it by sections 18A to 18E of the Representation of the People Act 1983 shall undertake a review of the parliamentary polling districts and parliamentary polling places within its area.

This review follows the publication of the Local Government Boundary Commission for England's final recommendations regarding electoral arrangements for Exeter City Council.

The consultation period for this review will commence on the Tuesday, 13 October 2015 and end on Tuesday, 10 November 2015.

Any person or organisation wishing to make a representation in respect of the arrangement of polling districts and polling places within the boundary of Exeter City Council; must write to: Mr. Jeff Chalk, Polling District Review, Electoral Services Office, Exeter City Council, Paris Street, EXETER EX1 1JN or electoral.services@exeter.gov.uk by 10 November 2015.

The Council would welcome any person or body with expertise in access for persons with any type of disability to comment on the Acting Returning Officer's representations or on any other matter. Any comments should, if possible, give alternative places that may be used as polling stations

This review will require submissions to be made by the Acting Returning Officers for the Exeter Constituency and the part of the East Devon Constituency within the Exeter City Council authority area. These submissions will be published and available for inspection at Civic Centre, Paris Street, Exeter EX1 1JN and at www.exeter.gov.uk by 13 November 2015.

The closing date for comments on any proposals set out in the Acting Returning Officers' submissions is 1 December 2015. The Council will then consider the Acting Returning Officer's recommendations together with any other representations made.

All submissions, correspondence, minutes and decisions relating to the review will be made public on the Council's website as the review progresses. It is intended that the Council will publish its final proposals during January 2016.
