

BINGO

Mandatory Conditions

Summary of all terms and conditions of the premises licence shall be displayed in a prominent place.

The layout of the premises shall be maintained in accordance with the plan.

The premises shall not be used for the sale of tickets in a private lottery or customer lottery or the sale of tickets in any other lottery in respect of which the sale of tickets in the premises is otherwise prohibited.

A notice stating that no person under the age of 18 years is permitted to play bingo on the premises shall be displayed in a prominent place at every entrance to the premises.

No customer shall be able to enter the premises directly from any other premises in respect of which one of the following permissions has effect, a casino premises licence, an adult gaming centre premises licence or a betting premises licence other than a track premises licence.

Where children and/or young persons are permitted by the licence holder to enter the premises, and Category B or C gaming machines are made available for use on the premises, then the gaming machines must be:

- separated from the rest of the premises by a physical barrier to prevent access other than by an entrance designed to be the entrance.
- supervised at all times to ensure children or young persons do not enter the area
- arranged in such a way that ensures all parts of the area can be observed by persons responsible for supervision, or closed circuit television, which is monitored.

The gaming machines area must also have a notice at the entrance stating that no person under the age of 18 years is permitted to enter the area.

Where there is a charge for admission there must be a notice of the charge displayed in a prominent place at the principal entrance to the premises.

A notice setting out any other charges in respect of the gaming (except prize gaming) shall be displayed at the main point where payment for the charge is to be made. Such a notice must include the cost (in money) of each game card or set of game cards payable by an individual in respect of the game of bingo, and the amount that will be charged by way of a participation fee. There should also be in the notice a statement that all or part of the participation fee may be waived at the discretion of the person charging it. The notice can be displayed in electronic form.

The rules of each type of game that is available (other than gaming machines) shall be made available to customers within the premises by either displaying a sign, making leaflets or other written material available, or running an audio-visual guide prior to any game commencing.

Any ATM made available for use on the premises shall be located in a place that requires any customer who wishes to use it to cease gambling in order to do so.

Default Condition

No facilities for gambling shall be provided on the premises between midnight and 9am, apart from gaming machines.
